

We Have the Perfect Program for You

First and foremost, we train and educate our students. As an approved vocational school, we provide professional certifications whether you are a beginner or are striving to become an expert. We will work with you during every step of your education to help ensure your success.

At the International Wine and Spirits Guild, we value each student's desire to learn, and we want to become your Education Partner as you explore all aspects of wine and its deep roots in world history. Whether you are studying just for fun, are changing careers, considering starting your own wine business, are working toward a promotion or new position in the wine and hospitality industry, we have programs to fit all of your specific needs.

Our National Education and Training Center is located in Denver, CO in the middle of "winery row" at 4640 Pecos St., Unit H. Our school combines classic architecture with modern classrooms, even a commercial kitchen, beside operational wineries. We have a learning environment designed to meet the highest standards of excellence and provide a world class wine education.

All of our courses are open to students who are not in the trade but want the same education as those striving for a professional certification.
